Dear Friend of WorldNetDaily,

Thanks to the efforts of President Trump, Elon Musk and the DOGE team, you've no doubt heard about the scandalous – even treasonous – misuses of your hard-earned tax dollars during the Biden-Harris administration. Like delivering billions of dollars of your money to the Taliban terrorists in Afghanistan. And supporting al-Qaida-affiliated fighters in Syria.

You also unwillingly funded the promotion of sex changes and "LGBT activism" in Guatemala, and paid for a "DEI musical" in Ireland and a "transgender opera" in Colombia and a "transgender comic book" in Peru. And honestly, a mountain of similar insanity.

But now, please take a breath and then check out this almost equally crazy use of your tax dollars, which most Americans have just recently learned about.

That would be the federal government's generous financial support for "mainstream media" outlets (that's code for the Deep State's servile propaganda organs). I'm talking about big news companies from Politico to the Associated Press to the New York Times and many others. (USASpending.gov, the government-spending tracker, reveals Politico received up to $27 million – some counts indicate $32 million – from different federal agencies during Joe Biden's term in office.)

In these times of high inflation and great economic stress, I'm sure you're not too thrilled to know that your hard-earned dollars went to keeping these notoriously leftist/establishment "journalism" outfits – which Trump correctly labels "Fake News" – alive and thriving.

But hey, what about the few news organizations that are NOT craven propagandists for the leftist, globalist, "woke," pro-transgender, anti-Christian, global-warming, Deep State wacko crowd?

What about the small handful of journalism enterprises that dare to actually be guided by TRUTH, common sense, the Constitution, the Bible, an appreciation for the hard-won lessons of history and an actual love of America? For such organizations as these, rest assured, no help has ever been received from the American taxpayer. And that would include WorldNetDaily.

In fact, not only do we not receive federal subsidies funded by your tax dollars, we wouldn't want that.

But we WOULD love to have you voluntarily join with us, just because you love and honor the same things we do – God in heaven, the American patriots who fought and died for our country, and the absolute need to stand on the proverbial roof and (metaphorically) shout the truth from morning until night. The truth about the ongoing war for America that, despite Trump's magnificent victory, still rages on many fronts – from the inner sanctum of the Deep State, from the globalist enclaves where spectacular new attacks on America's sovereignty are brewing, from the maniacal promoters of LGBTQ madness, and from the "After School Satan Clubs" that are cropping up in America's public schools. Yes, really. (We've covered it comprehensively on WorldNetDaily.)

The war for America is not over, friends. Yes, Trump won, but if we – you and us – fold our tents and go home and kick back, a rude awakening will greet us all before long. "The price of freedom is eternal vigilance," warned Thomas Jefferson, who also said, "The only security of all is in a FREE PRESS." Which is precisely why WorldNetDaily's motto, ever since Joseph Farah founded it way back in 1997, has been, and remains: "A FREE PRESS FOR A FREE PEOPLE."

It's not just a cool slogan – it's a statement of hardcore reality: Without a free press, America is toast. Why? Because an honest press represents a commitment always to proclaim and champion TRUTH. And without truth, there can be no freedom.

Now I'll let you in on a little secret: You might not know it by looking at WND.com, which is bursting with some of the best, most insightful and innovative print and video news coverage anywhere on the planet, but these are still very difficult and painful times. Yes, Trump is president, thank the Good Lord. But WND is still attacked and suppressed and demonized by much of Big Tech, including Google, which totally de-monetized WND after warning us that our journalism was – and I quote – "dangerous," "derogatory," "misrepresentative," "unreliable" and "harmful." Yep, they really said that.

Google has not changed just because Trump became president.

Indeed, as a result of Big Tech persecution of WND, three major international online ad companies – TripleLift, AppNexus/Xander and Teads – all canceled WND advertising, seriously hurting our revenues. Why? Well you see, because of our supposed "hate speech" – that's what they call it when you uphold basic biblical morality. The Southern Poverty Law Center, the hateful leftwing extremist group that Big Tech relies on to identify hateful extremist groups, classifies WND as ... you guessed it, a hateful "extremist group"! Apparently, your favorite news site engages in, and I quote, "manipulative fear-mongering and outright fabrications designed to further the paranoid, gay-hating, conspiratorial and apocalyptic visions ... from the fringes of the far-right and fundamentalist worlds."

Translation: We're conservative and Christian.

Friend, I know you have got my message, and I won't say much more. Won't you please help us?

Today's media playing field is NOT remotely level, but what makes it work – what "levels" it – is YOU. If you value and appreciate WND and want to see it continue, please support us financially. It's just as simple as that. Otherwise, we will not be able to survive and carry on. That is the hard truth.

It is only the grace of God and the generosity of donors that has gotten us this far. Thank you very much for all of your past support.

But we need your continued help to keep going, to cover our costs and make payroll for our fantastic group of journalists, all of whom have endured significant pay cuts and missed paychecks entirely, yet who have stayed with us for the past two-plus decades!

Here's how you can help:

Please prayerfully consider making a generous tax-deductible donation to the 501c3 Christian nonprofit charity, the WND News Center. You can make either a one-time donation or a monthly recurring donation, by credit card or PayPal. Whatever you can do is enormously appreciated.

If you don't need the tax deduction, please consider donating directly to WND.
